

Where did Lawrence come from?

Lawrence LaFerla is originally from Boston, Massachusetts, USA. His childhood and teenage years were rooted in the Boston area, where he became deeply involved in the local underground music scene during the late 1970s and early 1980s. This included his role as lead vocalist for the band 007 (later Dub7), which was influential in the Boston post-punk and underground rock community. <sup>[1] [2] [3]</sup>

He grew up steeped in Boston's vibrant music culture before later moving to Japan, where he currently serves as division head of JAPANtranslation and engages in cross-cultural marketing, translation, and archival projects. <sup>[2] [4]</sup>
